Notes on 1867 Diary - made by Rankin MacMillan in January of 1969.

James MacMillan and Martha Murdock were married January 15, 1867. James was 33 - Martha 23.

James' father (David) had died in 1856. In January of 1867 James' mother (Nancy) and his three unmarried sisters (Jane, Jennette, Martha) were living at the farm. (This was the household to which James brought his bride! Evidently this was too many for the newly-weds, so by October 1867 a house was purchased on Xenia Avenue in Cedarville and Mother Nancy and the three sisters moved there.)

Later, Jennette married Bigman Harrison (see page 80 of the Blue MacMillan Clan Book).
